

The Harington Trustees

	Alison Kelly Chair of the Harington Board of Trustees Lead for Safeguarding and Lead for Social Justice, Equalities, Diversity and Inclusion	Alison, a lifelong Camden resident became an Advocate for Parents and Children with Learning Differences due to personal experience. She has managed local council services for children and young people and been Head of Governance at the Audit Commission. Alison has chaired 5 schools, including a special boarding school and is a former Camden Councillor.
	Mark Cooke Treasurer Committee Chair of Finance and Resources Joint Vice-Chair of the Board	Mark is a Chartered Accountant, with extensive experience of charity and not-for-profit management. Former Director, Finance and Corporate Services at Big Lottery Fund. Retired from paid work, and now supporting a number of charities as Treasurer, long term resident of Haringey and former Haringey Councillor.
	Penny Kenway Students Standards/ Learning/ Education/ Progression Committee Chair of Quality and Standards Joint Vice-Chair of the Board	Penny is an experienced strategic leader in education, working first as a teacher, then in an international children's charity. She has been a London local authority senior leader, responsible for complex children and family services with large diverse staff teams. Penny's expertise includes early childhood, learning and development, early help, quality improvement and partnership working.
	Jaspal Dhaliwal Further Education/ Special Educational Needs/ Learning and Skills Committee Quality and Standards Vice-Chair of the Committee	Jaspal Dhaliwal is the Head of Service of Our Newham Learning & Skills and is responsible for providing an excellent adult and community learning service that is focussed on the highest standards, employment outcomes and the health and wellbeing of residents. Jaspal has expertise in inclusion, education, skills, employment and lifelong learning.
	Martin Hesketh Health and Safety/ Data/ IT/ Procurement/ Estates and Premises/ Human Resources Committee Finance and Resources Vice-Chair of the Committee	Martin is a qualified accountant with a wealth of experience in the public sector. His most recent role was at Haverstock School in Camden as Director of Finance & Operations. As a result of family experience, he is passionate about improving support services so that frontline education received by students is as good as it can be.
	Ruth Alaile Student Experience/ Good Governance Committee Quality and Standards	Ruth Alaile is Director of Governance at a large charity and public body. As a proud parent of a young person with learning difficulties she is a passionate advocate for access and inclusion, and opportunities for all.
	Julie Forsythe Education/ Teaching/ Learning/ Special Educational Needs Committee Quality and Standards	Julie is a proud parent of two teenage daughters and has worked her way through a highly complex special needs assessment process. Julie also has two cats and one very lively dog. Julie works part-time as a teacher for a local primary school. It is a job she finds rewarding and a whole lot of fun.
	Katherine Lamb Strategic Fundraising/ Marketing/ Social Media Committee Finance and Resources	Katherine lives nearby in Highgate and has two grown up kids who went to school locally so she knows the area well. Katherine works in marketing and her role as a Trustee is to lead on our fundraising strategy, and to make sure people know about all the brilliant work at Harington.
	Swee Kheng Lee Treasurer of the Friends of Harington Committee Finance and Resources	Swee is a volunteer at Harington, as well as being a Harington Trustee. Swee supports the students as well as being the Treasurer of the Friends of Harington. Her background is in the finance industry, having worked in the City as a fund manager.
	Tricia Leman Education/ Human Resources/ Wellbeing Committee Quality Standards	Tricia is a long term resident of Highgate and has a broad background in education. Her experience includes teaching in further and higher education, Head of a Community Education Unit, Director of Human Resources at an FE College and HR consultant to various Local Authorities and Universities. She has been a school governor for over 15 years.